

Being Different

(Winner of the 2nd prize in the NESTA Writing Competition)

4D Wong Hon Yin, Rico

Clouds are flying.
Sun is shining.
Are you becoming different?

Days are changing.
Years are turning.
Are you becoming different?

Photos are becoming yellow.
Videos are fading.
I have been growing.

Weather is being different every day.
Feelings are changing every time.

But there's something which is never different.

Our love, our hearts, our care.
All people have a heart.
All people need love.
All people want care.

Clouds are flying.
Sun is shining
Days are changing.
Years are turning.
Our hearts are never vanishing.
Never being different.
