

Appreciate Little Things Around You

(This article has been published in the South China Morning Post.)

5D Wong Wai Yan, Sweetie

Are you happy with your life?

As a student, I really think that I have lots of work to do. I am doing my homework and doing revision every day.

Students have no holidays, especially Form Five students as we have to practise day and night for the HKCEE. I believe the more I pay attention, the more I gain.

Also, as a student, I can see that teachers have lots of work to do too. They have more pressure than the students.

Nowadays, teachers not only need to teach, but also have to attend meetings and courses. So twenty-four hours are not enough for them.

I think life in Hong Kong is like this, but we must try to enjoy our lives. Otherwise, you will end up moaning every day. So appreciate every little thing in your lives and be optimistic.